

WOMAN ROUTS HIM WITH MILK BOTTLE

Chases Intruder She Finds in Her Apartment After He Hits Her in Face With Fist.

Mrs. Fannie Leder, twenty-five years of age, of No. 783 Williams Avenue, Brooklyn, did not scream or faint when she entered her apartment last night and found a stranger there, packing up her valuable. She seized a milk bottle and hurled it at him. He ducked and the bottle crashed against the wall. The stranger then struck the woman in the mouth and all but knocked her to the ground and then ran from the apartment. Mrs. Leder screamed for neighbors and chased the intruder. Detective Scheider arrested a man who gave the name of Max Soalt, twenty-seven, of No. 38 Livonia Street.

"General Later," Only Truth in Man's Obituary Notice.

"The funeral will be held later. That is the only part of this story that is true," said Henry Pineau, a diamond setter of No. 188 May st., Hawthorne, N. J., after reading an account of his death in one of the local newspapers yesterday. He had merely fainted on a train.

MAY CUT NAVY YARD FORCE.

House Refuses to Make $9,050,000 Deficiency Appropriation.

Officials of the Brooklyn Navy Yard are unable to determine what effect the action of the House of Representatives yesterday in killing a $9,050,000 deficiency appropriation for the repair of ships will have on that yard, where about 12,000 men are now employed. It was explained that $21,000,000 was still available for repair work in all yards between now and July 1. The department makes monthly allotments to each yard, and the reduction of the force will depend on what sums are allocated to the Brooklyn plant.

Woman Dies in Theatre.

While in the Colonial Theatre, 234 Street and Broadway last night, Miss Anna Smith, twenty-five, was taken suddenly ill and died in the manager's office within a few minutes. Dr. Seldowitz of Bellevue Hospital said death was due to heart trouble.

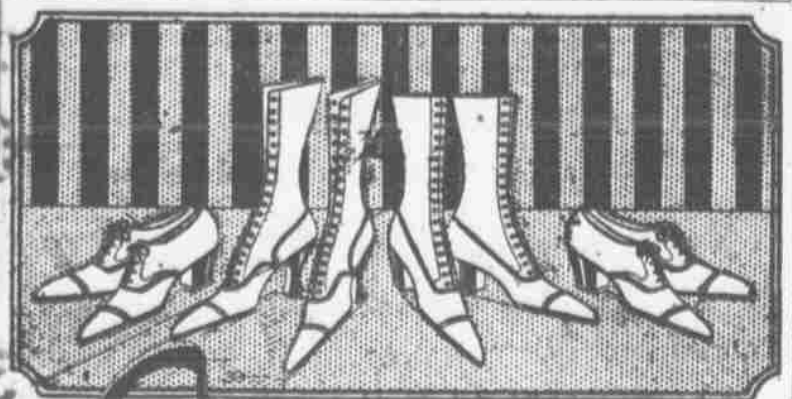

Ask for Foreign Loan Facts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The Secretary of the Treasury is asked in a resolution adopted yesterday to inform the Senate regarding loans made by the United States to foreign Governments and what interest has been paid or is due.

MARKET OFFICIALS MEET.

National Organization to Co-ordinate Work Is Planned.

Market officials from all parts of the country gathered to-day at the Murray Hill Hotel for a three-day conference. Formation of a permanent national organization of State market officials to co-ordinate Government food marketing activities in all the States and bring about improvement of food distribution conditions will be considered. Representatives of the Merchants' Association and other organizations have been invited to a dinner at the Park Avenue Hotel to-night. To-morrow the market officials are scheduled to make a tour of the public markets.
